

letter positions

By MS. ABRAR RAGAB

By MS. ABRAR RAGAB

1 friendly letters

- They are friendly letters.
- They accept to connect to
  - the previous letter
- and
  - the following letter
- They give their right hands to the proceeding letter, and their left hands to the next letter.

By MS. ABRAR RAGAB

Unfriendly letters

- There are 6 unfriendly letters in the Arabic language.
- They accept to connect to
  - the previous letter
- but they refuse to connect to the following letter.
- You will find a space after the unfriendly letters.

أ د ذ
ر ز و

By MS. ABRAR RAGAB

Letter with different shape

- Letter ..... has a different shape in the initial case.

or

- letter ..... looks a little bit different in the beginning of the word.

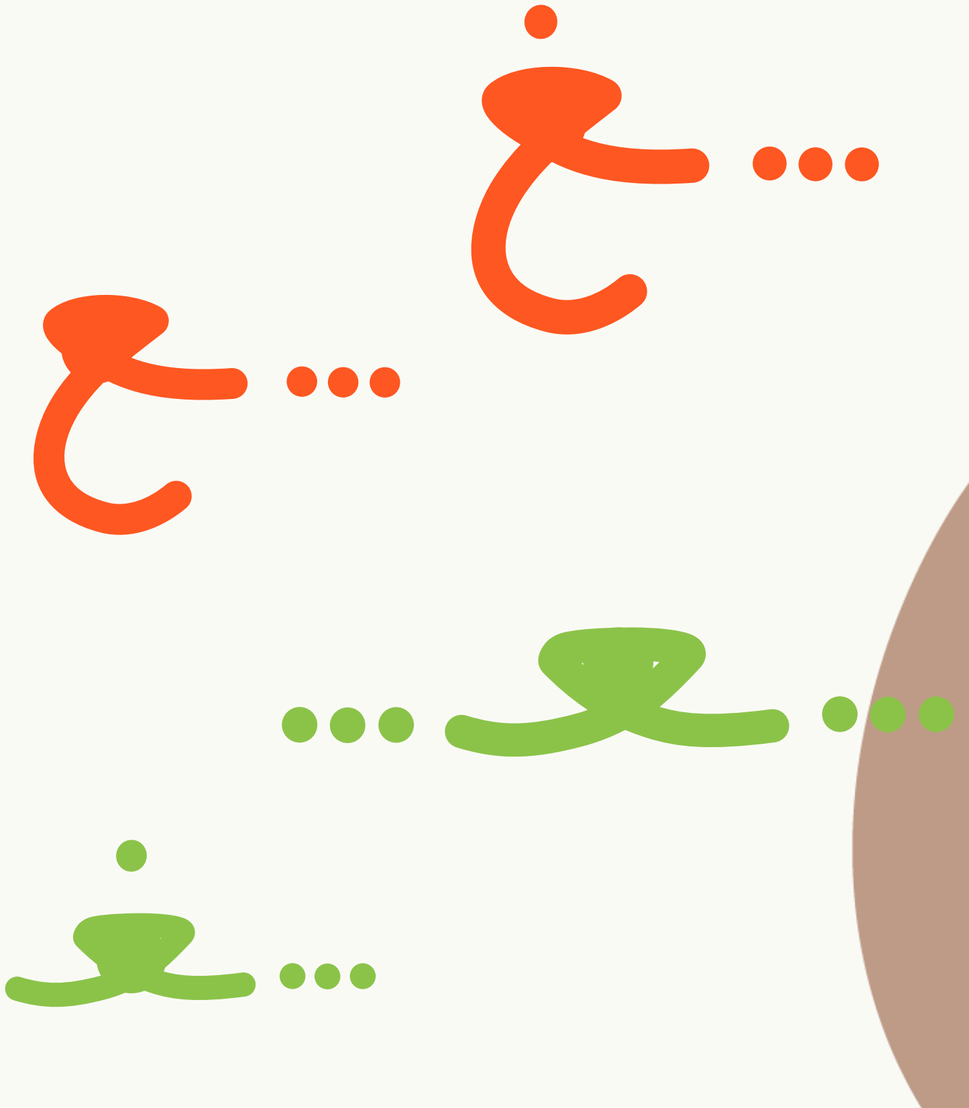

ع ي

By MS. ABRAR RAGAB

Letter with different shape

- Letter ..... has a different shape in the medial and final case.

- They look like a circle which is:
- closed and dark

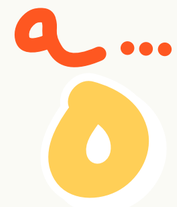

By MS. ABRAR RAGAB

5 Letter with different shape

- Letter Haa has a different shape in the initial, medial and final case.
- it looks like Daal with a circle inside it at the beginning of the word.
- It looks like number 8 in the middle of the word.
- It looks like a circle attached to a dash at the end.
- If it is proceeded with a friendly letter, it looks like
- It it is proceeded with unfriendly letter, it looks like

By MS. ABRAR RAGAB

the initial case

- some letters don’t change in the initial case
- like Alif and Daal etc.
- Other letters, we just take the first part of it
- like Baa and Noon etc.
- Other letters change totally like Yaa and Kaf.

By MS. ABRAR RAGAB

The final case

- Most of the Arabic letters back to their original shape at the end of the word, like Baa, Daad and Seen etc.

By MS. ABRAR RAGAB

Hamza

- Hmaza is a spoiled letter.
- Most of time, Hamza needs a chair to sit on.
- This chair is sometimes Alif, Yaa, and Waw.
- It sometimes decides to be independent and
- comes by it self.
- Hamza can come under letter Alif according Harakat/signs